Innovative Teacher Awards - 2008

Are you using ICT in an innovative way to enhance teaching and learning?

What is innovation?

Being innovative means that you are doing something that is new and ground breaking in the context of your school. This may mean using newly acquired technology in an exciting way or continuing to use technology in interesting and evolving ways.

Innovation workshop materials are available at http://www.school.za/innovation

What is an innovative teacher?

- · An innovative teacher is someone who teaches in a way that is new or groundbreaking at the school, while integrating ICT to support that teaching.
- An innovative teacher can demonstrate that teaching and learning has improved as a result of the approaches used.

How can teachers nominate themselves?

Teachers will submit a PowerPoint presentation describing their innovation using the template provided at: http://www.school.za/itf/presentation_template.ppt

Deadlines
